Visitor's top tips

Have breakfast at Redhill Aerodrome, you can watch helicopters take off as well as interesting planes and aircraft.

The bluebells in the woodland walk are absolutely amazing during the spring.

Ideal location for visiting London without entering congestion zone.

Go to Sky Gardens in London, it's near to London Bridge with amazing views and is free to visit.

Great site for dog owners, welcoming with lots of walks nearby.

Great for visits to Chartwell and Hever Castle.

The North Downs Way is accessible directly from the site which is great for walking, or in my case trail running.

Not far from Brighton, we enjoyed a day out there. Also went to Farthing Downs which is beautiful for walking.

Kids love Godstone farm, which is only 4 miles away.

I flew a Spitfire at Biggin Hill, expensive but a once in a lifetime experience.
