

Altnaharra Club Campsite

Explore the Scottish Highlands

Places to see and things
to do in the local area

Make the most of your time

Visit

- 1 Cape Wrath

See some of Britain's highest cliffs, seals and wildlife and the spectacular Cape Wrath Lighthouse at Scotland's most north-westerly point.
- 2 Ferrycroft Countryside Centre

Beside the renowned archaeological site Ord Hill and surrounded by forest, a great base for discovering wildlife and history.
- 3 Strathnaver Museum

Discover the area's vibrant culture and mythical past, inherited from Norse and Gaelic ancestors.
- 4 Bird Watching

From mountain top to sea shore, this is a first class area for birdwatching. RSPB Forsinard Reserve is nearby and thrives with bird life in summer.

Don't forget to check your Great Saving Guide for all the latest offers on attractions throughout the UK.
camc.com/greatsavingsguide

- 5 Fishing

Members staying on site may fly fish from the shore, and also row, sail or paddle your own boat on Loch Naver.
- 6 Clay pigeon shooting

Visit one of Big Shoots 150 locations at Altass to experience the thrills of cracking clays.

Cape Wrath

Ben Loyal

Walk

7 Hill Walking

Ben Klibreck, Ben Hee, Ben Hope, Ben Loyal and Ben Griam Mor are amongst the hills which can be viewed from the observation cairn, 20 minutes walk from the site, and explored.

Explore

10 Clo Mor

See the highest sea cliff on the British mainlands (900 feet), offering spectacular sweeping views and abundant birdlife.

11 Lairg

With views of lush green hills and snow capped mountains, this peaceful village is nestled on the southern shores of Loch Shin.

Cycle

8 National Cycle Network

The nearest route to the site is 1, Dover to Shetland.

9 Mountain Biking

The Highlands has been recognised by the International Mountain Bike Association as one of the great biking destinations and offers an abundance of trails, forest and wilderness riding to suit all levels and abilities.

Clachtoll near Lairg

Visitor's top tips

|| Get up early. Enjoy the sunrise over the loch and listen to the sounds of early morning wildlife.

The area is great for wild trout fishing.

Don't draw your blinds too early as the deer herd often come down the hillside when it's getting dark.

The beaches are astoundingly beautiful on the north coast.

Drive up to Dunnet Head for excellent views of Orkney.

Walk the hills directly behind the site, where you'll find the ruins of a Highland Clearance Village.

Bring a canoe and explore the loch.

Climbing Ben Loyal from Lettermore direct to the top is a fantastic experience. ||

Close by

Supermarket

The closest shop is Spar, 25 miles away in Lairg.

Petrol Station

Lairg, approx 25 miles, Bettyhill.

