Visitor's top tips

|| Visit The Village Inn for a good pint and a bite to eat – it's dog friendly too.

You can walk to both Cromer and Sheringham and there is a great bus service along the coast and inland.

A walk to the top of Ingleboro Hill is a must for fabulous sunset views.

Visit in spring – bluebells and yellow gorse galore!

Muckleburgh Military Collection is a very interesting visit. We loved walking our dog through the nearby woodland.

Sheringham Theatre hosts some excellent shows – be sure to check their schedule.

RSPB Titchwell Marsh is a lovely, and we had a wonderful day out on the North Norfolk Steam Railway too.

Head to Blakeney Point to see seals and seal pups – it's a breath-taking sight!

There are some great local golf courses, and Hole in One is great for dining. ||
