Visitor's top tips

Take the walk from the site entrance round the back of the site and down to the beach huts, then pay a visit to the Fat Seagull for a spot of lunch.

You don't really need a car here for a quiet break, you can walk to the beach and Sutton-on-Sea. Also, the bus goes to local towns and Skegness.

The flat surroundings make this an ideal spot for exploring by bike.

Farmer Browns Ice Cream Parlour serves delicious, homemade ice cream, and also has a lovely cafe.

Head to Gibraltar Point for great birdwatching.

We recommend the Sea Breeze Restaurant, a great place to eat.

On Wednesday nights, a fish and chip van came to site – it was delicious and the serving size was just right.

Head to Lincoln to see the castle, cathedral, Aviation Heritage Centre and lots more. Check the council website for details of the Park & Ride.

The beaches around here are lovely, and have dog-friendly areas.
