Visitor's top tips

|| Drive or cycle to St Mary's Church at Houghton on the Hill, a rediscovered gem with 11th Century wall paintings.

Explore the woods behind the site; they are great for dog walks.

Don't forget your binoculars. We haven't seen so many deer, squirrels & birds in years.

Fakenham Garden Centre in Fakenham is brilliant.

Try the walk to Mundford through the forest past Lynford lakes, it takes around 1.5 to 2 hours and is a great dog walk.

The circular Desert Rats walk was brilliant and on the site's door step.

Visit the water gardens at Gooderstone as they were lovely.

Banham Zoo was a great day out for the children.

St Helen's picnic site was excellent for canoeing on the little ouse at Santon Downham.

The Swan Pub has excellent food and welcomes dogs.

Oxburgh Hall, Grimes Graves and Bressingham Steam & Gardens are all must-sees! ||
