Visitor's top tips

|| The walk to Tintagel and Boscastle is stunning. The views are breathtaking.

There are peregrines nests outside site and along the coast, and you can see large auk colonies in breeding season.

Visit Port Isaac to see the Doc Martin set.

Walk from Daymer bay to Rock then catch the ferry to Padstow.

Trebarwith Strand is awesome at high tide on a windy day.

There's a lovely cafe at Tintagel Brewery which serves superb breakfasts with excellent-quality ingredients.

The National Trust's Boscastle Village is absolutely beautiful, with a harbour, cosy pubs and scenic walking trails.

The Port William pub offers wonderful food, great views and is dog-friendly!

We loved the bay at Crackington Haven, with spectacular views and wildlife, as well as a lovely bistro cafe and pub.

The walks here are absolutely incredible, but we would definitely recommend bringing sturdy footwear for the rugged terrain.

Head to St Nectan's Glen to see a breathtaking 60-foot waterfall surrounded by stunning woodland. ||
