Visitor's top tips

|| York Castle Museum was a great morning.

The site is very well placed for cycling into York with marked cycle routes available.

The designer outlet well worth a visit.

Scarborough and Bridlington are great coastal days out.

York is full of attractions; we bought a 3 day pass and saved a fortune, York dungeon was our favourite.

If going into York use the park and ride. It's brilliant and stress free.

Don't miss Kirkham Priory, it's a hidden Gem.

Castle Howard is well worth a visit, located just a few miles away – the house and grounds are fantastic. We really enjoyed the Proms concert too.

The Shambles is a must-see for Harry Potter fans – the inspiration for Diagon Alley. ||
